Proceedings

1 THE CLERK: Criminal Cause for Status
2 Conference as to Bail Application, docket number 3 10-cr-594, United States of America v. Joseph Yannai.

4 Counselors, please state your appearances for 5 the record.

6 MR. SPECTOR: Good morning, your Honor. Daniel 7 Spector for the government.

8 MR. SCHNEIDER: Federal Defenders by Michael 9 Schneider for Mr. Yannai.

10 Good morning.

11 MS. VON DORNUM: Good morning, your Honor.
12 Diedre Von Dornum from Federal Defenders and Mr. Yannai
13 is present in the courtroom.

14 THE COURT: Good morning.

15 I received a submission from the government.
16 Did you want to be heard?

17 MR. SCHNEIDER: I will, your Honor. I have -- 18 I recently received another appraisal which was the 19 appraisal performed by the bank for -- prior to this 20 latest loan modification. So the loan is in arrears.

21 THE COURT: What loan modification?

22 MR. SCHNEIDER: I'm sorry. The refinancing --
23 the present loan's refinancing. There was an appraisal 24 done by the bank in 2007 and I'll provide that to the 25 Court with a cover letter later today. I do that -- I

Proceedings

1 understand that valuations have changed since 2007 2 greatly but it was done by the same appraiser who did the 3 appraisal that we provided on the last date. And that 4 appraiser in 2007 had been hired by the bank. So I am 5 going to provide it because I think it indicates that he 6 is an independent appraiser.

7           Since our last date, Ms. Fusillo has spoken 8 with the lender about the loan modification and they did 9 indicate to her over the phone that the modification was 10 made in error or going to be withdrawn because they 11 didn't think her income was high enough to meet the 12 payments of the new modified loan. That, however, was 13 only orally given to her on the phone. We don't have any 14 written verification of that. I understand the 15 government has provided these two letters or one letter 16 from December 13.

17           It's not clear to me that that's a withdrawal 18 of the modification offer. I don't know -- this bank 19 doesn't seem to know exactly what it's doing but so the 20 record is clear, it's our understanding based on this 21 oral representation over the phone made to Ms. Fusillo 22 that the modification that she was offered on December 3 23 probably is not being offered any more but they haven't 24 sent her a letter to that effect. And she did send in 25 her payment and the signed modification agreement. When

Proceedings

1 we do get written confirmation of that, we'll make it
2 available to the Court and the prosecutor.

3           The other thing is I have to, I guess, mention
4 and put on the record my concern which is this, that Ms.
5 Fusillo received, I think, the loan modification. It was 6 dated December 3. She received it sometime later, maybe 7 a week later. I provided it to the government prior to 8 our hearing last week and I spoke to Mr. Spector after 9 that who had spoken to the bank or told me he had spoken 10 to the bank and the modification wasn't going to be 11 signed by the bank.

12           That timing concerns me. I don't know what 13 happened. Perhaps the bank made a mistake and recognized 14 it. But I have a concern if somebody on the government's 15 part interceded with the bank in regards to the 16 modification, as opposed to just asking them about it.
17 Asking them about it, obviously I think is appropriate 18 but any steps taken by anybody on the government's side 19 to interfere with that I think would raise ethical 20 issues.

21           So I have a concern about that timing since we 22 thought the modification or Ms. Fusillo thought the 23 modification was a done deal and after I provided it to 24 the government, apparently it wasn't.

25           MR. SPECTOR: Judge, I can address that

Proceedings

1 directly. Just so the record is clear, after 2 Mr. Schneider notified me that his client would be 3 receiving a modification, I contacted the attorney for 4 the bank, inquired as to what the status was. She 5 expressed to me surprise that the modification had been 6 granted, said that she would be inquiring with her 7 client, the bank, that was not -- we did not request at 8 any time that they take any action one way or the other.
9 She on her own made the inquiry and then contacted the 10 government and informed the government that as a result 11 of the inquiry, the bank had determined that they had 12 made an error.

13 THE COURT: Okay. But I mean -- go ahead. Did 14 you have anything else?

15 MR. SPECTOR: No, I don't have anything else, 16 your Honor.

17 THE COURT: I mean isn't this -- can't we put 18 this all aside? She doesn't have the equity anyway.

19 MR. SCHNEIDER: What do you mean?

20 THE COURT: The bank did an appraisal and what 21 do you say here, what's the date, July 2010?

22 MR. SPECTOR: Correct, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: And that appraisal is what, 750?

24 MR. SPECTOR: Correct, your Honor.

25 MR. SCHNEIDER: Well, Judge, we can -- I think

Proceedings

1 that 750 is a low appraisal. I find the --

2 THE COURT: It doesn't matter what you think.

3 MR. SCHNEIDER: We provided an appraisal of 4 well over $900,000. The house was valued by the bank in 5 2007 at $1.1 million. And we'll provide that to the 6 Court.

7 THE COURT: 2007 is --

8 MR. SCHNEIDER: I understand. I understand
9 that things have changed but a twenty percent drop, I 10 think is a reasonable expectation even after the mortgage 11 meltdown.

12 First of all, it's not clear to me what equity
13 Judge Korman will think is necessary to secure 14 Mr. Yannai's release. I understand the concern about the 15 foreclosure and I understand that it's unlikely that a 16 house where the loan is not current will be viewed as 17 adequate security. I understand that. But if the loan 18 was modified, if the loan was reinstated, I think we're 19 in a different situation.

20 THE COURT: But it hasn't been.

21 MR. SCHNEIDER: No, that's correct. I
22 understand that. I understand.

23 THE COURT: We just keep coming back and --

24 MR. SCHNEIDER: Well, I --

25 THE COURT: -- according to you, we're in a

Proceedings

1 holding pattern.

2 MR. SCHNEIDER: Right. It's not --

3 THE COURT: According to the government, the 4 bank's made a decision. Do you want to be --

5 MR. SPECTOR: No, I think the letter from the 6 bank is quite clear, frankly, the December 13 letter in 7 the -- I guess the fourth full paragraph on the first 8 page. "The request for modification was reviewed but we 9 have determined that there are no loan modification 10 options available for you at this time." I think that's 11 clear as can be that there's not a modification 12 available. There's not going to be a modification, 13 unless circumstances change.

14 MR. SCHNEIDER: Right. And I understand the 15 government's position. I mean our position is it's not 16 -- you know, you get loan modification paperwork in the 17 mail and you fill it out and you send it back, you would 18 expect if they're not going to sign it, they would send 19 you a letter saying we got this and we're not signing it.

20 So it's not clear to me, you know, that this 21 isn't two different people in the bank who don't know 22 what's going on. I guess I do fully assume she's going 23 to get that letter.

24 THE COURT: All right.

25 MR. SCHNEIDER: I mean that's what they told

Proceedings

1 her over the phone.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 MR. SCHNEIDER: And I understand -- if I can 4 understand the Court's position, is that if the house is 5 -- the loan isn't current, it can't be posed as security.
6 You can't make a finding as to the amount of equity in 7 the house or the finding we'd make is that there's no 8 equity in the house. And I understand that.

9 So perhaps we can leave it at that but when the 10 loan is current, whether it's reinstated or modified, 11 then circumstances have changed and I think that at that 12 point without further hearing, this court could issue a 13 ruling as to the amount of equity in the house at that 14 point.

15 THE COURT: Well, yes, but in which case are 16 you just -- are you withdrawing your application to post 17 the house now and then you want to make another 18 application at another time when the circumstances 19 change?

20 MR. SCHNEIDER: Well, no, we're not withdrawing 21 our application to post the house.

22 THE COURT: Are you asking me not to do an R&R
23 to Judge Korman on it now? Are you asking me to wait?
24 What are you asking for?

25 MR. SCHNEIDER: Just one moment, your Honor.

Proceedings

1 THE COURT: Yes, okay.

2 (Counsel and client confer)

3 MR. SCHNEIDER: No, I think we're asking for 4 the report and recommendation after we provide this 5 latest -- not the latest appraisal but the appraisal from 6 2007. We'd ask the Court to make a report and 7 recommendation of what in its opinion the equity of the 8 house would be.

9 THE COURT: Without addressing the --

10 MR. SCHNEIDER: If the house is --

11 THE COURT: -- the status of the loan?

12 MR. SCHNEIDER: No, you can address the status 13 of the loan, if the house is foreclosed; right?

14 THE COURT: All right. Fine.

15 MR. SPECTOR: I think the Judge had also -- 16 Judge Korman had also asked to have a ruling on the 17 defendant's wife's claim about the reason for the 18 modification, For the reasons set forth in our letter of 19 yesterday --

20 THE COURT: Yes.

21 MR. SPECTOR: -- as well as today, we think she 22 should be found incredible (sic).

23 THE COURT: Well, you know, I have the 24 transcript from when you were before Judge Korman and 25 unless things have changed from that date, I'll follow

Proceedings

1 the instructions as to what he wants from me and I'll 2 issue an opinion.

3 Thank you.

4 MR. SPECTOR: Thank you, Judge.

5 MR. SCHNEIDER: Thank you.
